Session Description

Session 335 acts as an intermission of sorts between the previous Session 334, which featured Da Honoleia San, a.k.a the sun of Earth's solar system, and the upcoming Session 336.

During this brief, ten-minute long Session, Da Pah Kwan Yin San and Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San discuss the feedback that was received from the akeyasan students in live attendance during the live broadcasts of the previous Session 333, which opened the Solar Activations webinar, and Session 334.

As you undoubtedly have had your own unique experiences during the information, activations, and exercises provided in the previous two Sessions, the suggestions that are offered in this intermission will assist you in grounding your experiences within the Merkabah body, while at the same time expanding upon them within the Merkavah body.

Originally Titled: "The Solar Activations, Part 2.1" | AscendoSphere Webinars

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Hello, everybody, this is Da Pah Kwan Yin San, and we are popping in for a very brief moment here in the AscendoSphere, Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San and I, who is here with me right now, to deliver you this following quick message.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Hello, everybody, we just thought we would keep you abreast of exactly what's happening energy wise, and Da Pah Kwan Yin San, I think, will go into a bit more detail about that. It probably will go some way to explaining of how some of you are feeling. It is pretty turbulent here at the moment. As we are at the center of this Merkavah, we are getting all angles.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: For me, it is more of an internal turbulence, actually, because externally speaking, the universe outside of us is actually very quiet, very calm. Almost, I would say, very tonal before the song starts if you will, but inside, it has been quite some energy and also we have been receiving messages from all of you, from many of you at least, that have shared similar things.

On the one hand, we are receiving messages from attendees who are working strongly with the exercise of manifesting the Lemurian seed crystal that Da Leia San, the Sun, spoke of yesterday and worked on with us yesterday. On the other hand, we are receiving energy and messages from people that are saying, they are having a really hard time. Things are indeed turbulent, like Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys says, that they were having difficulties with their thoughts and that sort of thing. Some are experiencing physical issues.

Two Sides of the Same Coin

And this is why we are making this recording today because I want to remind you that yesterday, during Leia San's message in episode 2 of the Solar Activations Webinar, she spoke of the Merkavah field and how within our shared Merkavah field we would begin to experience two different fields of balance, two different poles for a short period of time. She said that on the one hand, you would find that there would be people who would be flying with all of this, who would be working on the exercise, who would feel stronger than ever, and on the other hand, you would have a group of people that would actually have a few more issues.

And so, while that is playing out in the shared Merkavah field for all of you, the Pahdasan'ka and I — because our job in the Merkavah field is to balance and distribute energy and keep the tonality flowing, as it were — on our side it has felt a little bit of both, hasn't it?

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Yes, definitely. And although it is a very calm and tonal feeling externally, it is quite taxing and draining from an internal point of view.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Well, we are doing a lot of work here at the moment, and not just the two of us, but also all of you out there. Don't forget that we are expanding and raising our consciousness at extreme speeds right now, previously unwitnessed in your lifetime, and in doing so that we are connecting to cosmic aspects of ourselves, as was explained yesterday as well. And all of that doesn't necessarily require integration, but it does require a balancing and a redistribution of energy.

Many years ago, Da Pah Ekara San spoke of 'Vibrational Resequencing,' but there is also such a thing as 'Tonal Resequencing,' where the spherical energy of the tone that you enter into needs to find its point of balance, its point of consciousness and, therefore, its perspective center, which is you. And it can take a while for you to enter into that center, as a perspective anyway.

So, whether you are currently experiencing one side of the coin or another, whether you are experiencing the grace and ease, with which all of this is taking place right now, or whether you are experiencing the other side, the more intense side of things right now, neither of those are in the center, are in the point of balance yet. All of us, ultimately, within the Merkavah field will come to those center points of perspective and in doing so, we will lock in the Flower of Life geometry, which has just been stirred up extremely intensely, of course, with the entrance of one of our hugely empowering cosmic aspects known as Da Leia San, or Da Honoleia San, as the Lemurians like to call her.

So, a lot is going on on that level, and I just wished to point that out to all of you, so you know what is happening for you. Of course, we are still very eager to hear back from you, to receive more of your experiences and your questions as they arise. Simply put them on the Webinar Lounge Forum or email them to ascension@imzaia.world.

Meditation and Contemplation

The second reason why we are putting out this brief audio message in the interim between episodes of the webinar that we are currently running, is to invite you to spend the time that was normally going to be spent today on episode 3, the one and a half to two hours that are now right ahead, in deep meditation and in deep contemplation, in a deep space of serenity and balance. That is the best way that you can actually spend this time right now. After the very powerful information and energy shared by Leia San yesterday, I think we can all do with some of that, so that, together, we can balance out the Merkavah field and move into episode 3 tomorrow, January 7th at 7pm GMT as usual.

So, that is basically my recommendation. I don't know if you have anything else to say, Pahdasan'ka, at this point?

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: I think the only thing I would like to add to that is, if you are one of the people that are finding it intense, don't worry about it. It will soon be over. It will pass. As we move forward towards the center, everything will balance out. Please don't worry about that.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Yes, that is a good recommendation. There is really nothing to worry about. Whether you are one that is tripping out on tonal energy, or whether you are one that is detoxing as you move into the tonal field — detoxing then from the vibrational space that you might have been in before — ultimately, you are working on the same thing. My expectation is that by tomorrow, we will have redistributed this tonality that we are currently entering through or entering into and moving through rather, and if anyone wishes to connect to us in the meantime, we are here for you. Spend the next time meditating or spend the next time exercising, as Leia San suggested, and understand that whichever side of the coin you are on, the reason why this is happening so powerfully for you, is that you are shaking off the last remnants of vibrational energy, vibrational space, which, in many cases, can be quite a mental experience and quite an experience of limitation. And then it is up to us, of course, to decide which kakra we are going to be experiencing this from. So, I invite you to experience this next patch, as we travel through the tonality that we are currently in, from the Akene and from the heart space and to celebrate the release that is happening to you.

That being said, I am Da Pah Kwan Yin San. I am with you, and we are all here for you at any point in time that you wish to communicate. We will be in the chatroom for a while and we will also be on our email, of course, and in our Skype group.

So, have a good one. See you tomorrow, January 7th, for episode 3 already. At that point we will be over half of this experience, so that is going to be exciting. And take care!

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Much love to you guys! Namaste.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Namaste.
