

The Study of Vibration

Session 175

by

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San

Recorded November 11, 2007

ONLINE TRANSCRIPT FOR IMZAIA.WORLD

I Am that I Am, Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San, and I Am that I Am so very, very proud of all of us, Imzaia! Wow, Imzaia, wow! You are sitting here and you have no idea at all what you have just accomplished together with us.

Oh, I know that some of you, some of you have felt something. But what actually took place, what you actually did together with us, that was truly amazing! We took what was once called the 'New Energy' onto this planet earth and we took it right up, right up, so that it filled every potential there is in the universe, transforming it to 'Free Energy'.

Free energy is something completely different than what you think it is. Some of you have yet to experience this free energy, and that is because you are - as Da Jeshua San just said - you are the next level. It is going to happen again and it is just going to get stronger and stronger and stronger as it keeps on happening all across this planet earth. It doesn't mean that once you do something like this it just affects a specific area of the planet. What you did here, affected the entire planet. It means that if you are doing it again and again and again, it will continue to affect the planet. And not just the planet. It will affect the people on the planet, and the animal life and the plant life and the mineral life and the cosmic life that resides here.

Changing the Planet

Again, you have no idea what you have just done, but I know. I know. And I wish to let you know how very grateful I am, how very grateful we all are. We are in awe of the things that you are accomplishing. We are your very, very humble servants, and I thank you. I thank you for what you are doing to the planet.

Oh, I know that you are just sitting here now thinking, "But, I'm just here in a hotel room somewhere, undergoing a seminar, experiencing a seminar. Yeah, yeah, yeah, it is pretty cool, it is pretty interesting!" But no, it is much more than pretty interesting. It is changing everything. This will continue to happen. It will continue to happen on planet earth that people who once believed they were small, who once believed they were worth nothing, are changing the planet.

Do you think that the great ones in history knew what they were doing? Do you think that the great ones that changed the face of the earth and the way humanity was living understood that what they were activating was a grand moment indeed? No, of course, they didn't! They thought of themselves as small sometimes as well. They did not realize the effect that some of the things would have.

Take a very dear friend of mine, Martin Luther King, for instance. Do you think that he knew that that speech, 'I have a dream', that that speech would travel the earth and still would continue to travel the earth? Do you think he knew this? Of course he didn't! He had nerves as he was going up on that stage. And although many people believe that he wrote that 'channeling' I would almost say, that lecture, right before he went up stage... well, he did have papers with him, yes, but on those papers are not the words that were once spoken, that were finally spoken. He brought in that energy, much in the same way as you are bringing in this energy.

So, be aware. Be very aware of the fact that the energy of the planet is changing and will continue to change. Like Da Lemuaya San, the Great One, has said yesterday, one of the important spaces of this change is right here, in Den Helder. The other one in Peru, and the third one... well, look at the map, dear ones, look at the map!

Oh, my, my brothers and sisters, it is so amazing to see you here now, and to see the faces that you now carry, and to see the roles that you used to play. And you know, as we used to come here into spaces such as this one, in the very recent past it used to feel as though we were entering on stage together with you where you were playing out your life.

The Dressing Room

The interesting thing now - and this is a first for me; it is a new experience for me as well - the interesting thing now is that I don't feel that I am on stage with you, but that I am in your dressing room, the dressing room where you put on your make-up or you put on your costume right before you go on stage or right after you leave the stage. Do you understand what I mean?

That means that you are creating a space that is much closer to your actual energy, your actual Self, your divine Self than it used to be. But that just happened mere moments ago. So, get ready to feel those changes! Get ready to feel those effects fully and completely. You are magnificent! You are the waves coming in to planet earth. I again bid you my deepest of respects.

But of course, before I turn this again into an half hour of lecturing... And I know we have to keep the time, time keeper. Much more than that obviously. If you want it. The same goes for all of you. Before we turn this into half an hour of lecturing again, I would like to open the room now for questions. Is there anyone who has a first question? You are invited to stand up and to take your space, here, next to me.

Questions and Answers

Of course. Aloha! Sit down.

Akeyasan 1: Hi. My question has to do with the illusion. Yesterday, and the day before, we spoke about form being illusion, and right afterwards we spoke about geometry. But to me geometry is also a form. How can that then not be an illusion?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Okay, it is a very interesting question actually and one that you are not just coping with. It is one that several people on this planet are coping with right now. Let's see how I am going to answer this one because of course there are so many different levels from which to answer a question such as this.

When we speak about the concept of illusion, then what we mean in fact is not just that there is matter and that matter isn't real, it is your perception that you have on the matter that is all around you. It is the perception that either creates the illusion or doesn't create the illusion. For instance the perception of your body and the floor here, and the walls, and everything, it seems that these are fixed things that you have little control over. It is because the vibration of that energy that is your body is so very slow. That is why you seem not to be able to fix it, to change it.

However, geometry is quite a different ballpark. Geometry is not the energy that is creating your reality all around you. It is actually something which is beyond energy. The only word I can use is 'monoids'. And a monoid is a package of tachyon/photonic energy that is preparing itself to become that which you here call energy onto this planet earth.

So, the only difference except for the energy signature that your body has and that geometry has, the only difference besides that is that you are taught to believe that you have no control over your body or anything else around you and that these items are fixed. Geometry is not part of the illusion because it is variable, you see? Do you have another question?

Akeyasan 1: Not at the moment, no.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Okay, thank you very much, Clan Keeper.

Akeyasan 1: What was that?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Clan Keeper.

Kind Sir! Hello, have a seat. Good to see you again.

Akeyasan 2: Yeah?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yeah, I saw you last night.

Akeyasan 2: I didn't see you.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Oh, you saw me.

Akeyasan 2: We have a question. Somebody told us about the united field or the zero point energy or grids or photonic/tachyonic energy. Is that all the same? Is there a difference?

Zero Point Energy

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yes, okay. Well, of course, yes, there is a difference. If you talk about zero point field energy that is basically the amount of energy that is required if you want to create a black hole. Zero point field energy takes energy which is not localized on planet earth. It is not localized in this universe. It is Central Sun energy in effect. And that means it is unlimited.

If you look at the energy of planet earth for instance, it is a limited set of energy potentials, energy movement because the planet only requires so much energy to create all the matter that it needs to be complete. Zero point field energy is coming from a totally different space. It is coming from the center of all the universes put together. So this is an energy source, zero point field, that science will soon discover. It is very interesting indeed. Unfortunately they have already discovered it, and it is the military science that has discovered it, trying to turn this into a weapon. However, since it is Central Sun energy, this will not be allowed to happen in this universe. It cannot. It is impossible for the Central Sun to harm anyone, and especially for its energy to harm anyone. If in effect a type of weapon would be produced, and it would be used, it would only benefit people. Even though the military might believe that it would destroy millions and millions. So that is zero point field.

Now tachyon and photonic energy... if you look at any given cell, a cell of your body for instance, if you go deep, if you go deep within the cellular structure of the cell itself, then you will see that the cell is made up of an atomic - atom - core around which electrons revolve. Now if you go into the nucleus, the center of an electron then you see that an electron basically is created by photonic energy. Photonic energy is that type of energy that has barely scratched the surface of this universe. It means it is very small, very pure at the same time and just, just above the boundary which defines time and space. Tachyon is right underneath that and it is basically 'the' boundary of time and space. Tachyon energy is completely disconnected from space especially and from time.

Now, it is tachyon energy that allows Central Sun energy again to flow into the universe and to enter a field of space and time. So where the zero point field would basically be the energy of the Central Sun itself, the tachyon/photonic energy is deep within the cell's core that which is creating your cells, you see? But it is not the energy itself; it is the border of the energy. So that is the difference between zero point field and tachyon/photonic. Does that answer your question?

Akeyasan 2: Yes, but I will see it again on the tape.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yeah, I know.

Akeyasan 2: The field of all possibility is that the same?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: The field of all possibility? Well, I would say the field of all potential. The field of all potential is also based on tachyon/photonic energy, yes, so this is the same and it isn't the same. You see, you are talking about multi-dimensional concepts here and potentials are something that exist outside of our universe but that make up the foundation for all possibilities within the universe. So you could say that the field of all possibility or the field of potential is a poetic description of that which lies beyond the field of magnetics, and that is something that actually exists beyond vibration.

Actually what you will discover soon is that potentials are linked to that which you call the Akene, right here, and that potentials in fact are expressions - I am going to try to use a poetic way to describe it: potentials are expressions of God trying to manifest him/herself. So this is beyond anything.

Akeyasan 2: Thank you.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Thank you! Thank you for your technical questions. It is always, to me it is very fascinating actually, these things. I was studying it a lot when I used to have a body. Now I can't even touch a book! Imagine having to go to the bathroom...

Anyone else? Over there? Yeah, come on over. And then we will take someone from here, because I have been looking over there all the time.

A Soul's Intention

Akeyasan 3: I would like to know something about abortion and euthanasia. When this happens, does it affect in that moment, the soul? Does it give a lot of pain. That is what I would like to know.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: A very clear answer: No.

Akeyasan 3: Yeah, I thought so, I hoped so!

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: When euthanasia or when abortion happens, this is always based on what the soul wants. Any abortion that happens on the planet - I and will probably get in trouble with a lot of people across planet earth right now - but every abortion on the planet, that happens, is requested. It is the soul's intention to come in to connect to a parent or two parents and to have this experience together. It is sometimes very fascinating for a soul to have that short, brief time of existence on planet earth even within the womb of another body. Why? Because these are oftentimes souls that need to just get a taste of what is happening on the earth and then to go back again, you see? And it allows the parents that need to finally do the abortion, it allows them a learning curve, a learning process. And the same goes for euthanasia. So, that it is fine. Don't worry about all of these things. Thank you. This will help a lot of people.

Anyone here?

Akeyasan 4: I wonder if you could help me. It seems that I create...

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: It seems you do!

Akeyasan 4: ... imbalance in my life. I follow my passion. The things I do I really love, but there is an imbalance that the work, the time I spend on the work I do, and so few people are interested. I would like to reach more people.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Okay. Again, an interesting question because it is not just about you. This is a question that a lot of people will have that will be listening to this or watching to this later on.

The easy answer: You are not doing anything wrong. There are two parts to this answer. The first one is what I would call time/space management. You know many people in the business life today are about talking time management and how this is so important but what they would have to really look at is time/space management. Sometimes new techniques are introduced onto planet earth, new healing modalities. This one that is actually based on what is stored within your DNA is one that no longer takes power away from people that actually you don't really need to see as a healing technique at all. It is just a way of opening someone up to their highest potential. Right?

Time/Space Management

The reason why I am talking about time/space management with you is that it is taking a while for all of that energy, all of that information to download and that is why right now, in the recent past, it has taken you time and it hasn't really returned anything through the space field, so to speak in reality. Time/space management, if you look at it from that point of view then you just need some more time to bring it all in and then you will see the space around you opening up.

Another thing is that it needed to be done in a Free Energy world, that which you are setting out to do. And I don't want to talk too much about it yet because it is going to be so much more interesting if you are finally going to activate it completely.

And then the second part of the answer would be that you needed to wait because the modality, the technique, whatever you want to call it that you are developing is especially going to connect - and that is all that I am going to say about it - it is especially going to connect to that subject that Da Lemuaya San has talked about yesterday. As you know there is something going on with the children on planet earth. They are speeding up. Their vibration is getting quicker and quicker and quicker, and what doctors are doing is, they are trying to keep it down. Your technique - at least one aspect of it because it is going to do much more than that - will allow those children that have been pushed down by drugs, will allow them to reach a normal level of evolution again. Do you understand this?

Because, as you look at these kids and what they are going through and the pills that they are forced to take, that would have permanent physical damage. This system that you are doing is not about healing. It is about authenticating, returning it back to the authentic state of being, and that is what it is all about. So, that is what you are actually going through. I know it is a bit difficult because you need to wait a very long time. But that is what is going on. So, just look out for these children and if you want to reach a wider audience, that too will become available but I am suggesting to you right now then, if you want to do that, there are parents already looking out for the solution. There are parents that are already ready to receive more information about the damage that has been done to their children.

The problem you are having is that these parents oftentimes are not in a spiritual context. If they were they would not be giving the children those drugs. So you need to find a way to open yourself up to the outside world out there. And it is not just about the people here; it is about the people out there. It doesn't also mean that you have to scientifically clarify your technique. You just have to show that it works. Parents, as they will see the results, the heavy, heavy results on their children that have undergone those treatments of medication, they will be very happy to find something that has the ability to restore the damage that they basically and society has done. So prepare to be here on this planet for a very long time.

It was very funny to me last night when you were trying to explain what you were doing, and well, I was having an energy cigarette over there with Da Ejakasan'da Kuthumi Valen San. We were laughing and saying: "Oh, she thinks she is going to do that, hey? Fascinating!"

That is your answer. I hope that satisfies you.

Akeyasan 4: Yes, thank you.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Thank you.

Akeyasan 5: I feel so weird.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Oh, honey, we all do!

Akeyasan 5: It is this [the belly] and the heart... I don't have a question. Maybe this is the question.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: What do you think you have been going through in the last few days? You have been opening up, my dear. You have been opening up to more than you ever were. You are reclaiming parts of yourself that haven't been there before in your life. Do you understand that?

Akeyasan 5: No, but I can feel it.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: You can feel it. You have been taking away some of the clouds that were making sure that you couldn't see the real truth also about yourself. You are getting closer to that truth now. The reason why you are feeling it here [the heart space] is because that is where your truth is, at the heart. The reason why you feel strange here [the belly] is because you are birthing a type of action. Action is required on your part.

Now most people here, saw the flyer that you created and the work that you are going to be doing. It is always a blessing to see people look out for the children, if they are doing it in a scientific way or if they are doing it in a heart-to-heart way, through the parents, and with the children themselves to learn about the personalities and the patterning and everything. So that is fine, that is wonderful, but there is a lot more waiting for you, a lot more. And there is a lot of action still required from your part. It is not that you have to do paperwork or that you have to fill out stuff, get ready. That is not it. It is about choosing who you truly are, and that is what you are feeling. You are getting closer to who you truly are and you are a little bit afraid of it because with that knowing comes power, and with that power, with that power comes great responsibility. And that responsibility scares the shit out of you! Was I subtle? Yeah. That is what is happening.

Akeyasan 5: Thank you.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Thank you.

Hello dear.

Akeyasan 6: Hello Adamus. It is for me hard to believe and accept that this is a possibility, that I believe that this is right. What is it that holds me back?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Actually I know that a part of you must grow tired of it because the mind inside of you keeps repeating the same pattern over and over and over again. At the same time I think you are really strong and I think you are really bold, powerful, courageous because you keep doing it anyway. It is not easy to keep doing it. And of course again with the 144 strands cut away it is almost impossible to realize that you are back. The belief system is one thing that is difficult, but the actual realization of it is even more difficult.

But tell me this: What is making it so difficult for you?

Akeyasan 6: Religion?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: The religion that has told you about God?

Akeyasan 6: I am small and he is big.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yeah, okay, but do this: If you feel small compared to God, then just allow God to be small for a change. See God as big as you see yourself. Do you understand what I am saying? If you can't accept the fact that you are God then it is not because of religion. It is because of the fact that you can't accept that you are big, that you are All That Is. It is not about God. It is about you, my dear. It is your personality that can't accept it, so let the personality go. Let it go. It is all you need to do. Leave God up there, especially the image that you have of God.

Akeyasan 6: I know that it is different but I can take it now.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: I understand, but just leave that God that you were taught about in religion up there. It is a mindful god. Feel it in you but don't feel it as big as you. Feel it smaller than you. Begin small. See God as this little butterfly or whatever it is flying around in your body and let it become bigger every day until it fills you, and then, as it grows bigger, so do you, you see? Don't accept anything less than that. Thank you.

So, you wanted to ask a question.

Pain: a Memory Engram

Akeyasan 7: It was spoken about that pain truly doesn't exist but we all have other experiences in all the lives we have lived and maybe the pain is not true but the memory is true and it is in all our systems. If we are born with that system, then what is the use of pain bodies that we have with us and that we have in our system, and what can we do about that? How can we cope because when we still have our memories of pain with us it is difficult to make a next step in evolution and our growth?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: A very interesting question. The pain is - as you said - just a memory, a memory engram that was implanted. It isn't real. It is an implant. You can feel it, yes, I know. This is basically coming down to the difference between that which you call the Akash and that which you could call the Akonai. It is a word that was used at the beginning of the Cosmic Manifest and we haven't been working with that a lot because the Akonai was just in preparation for the Akene, right?

So, older memories, memories of pain, of death, all of those things, are stored as an experience. If you were to go to the Akonai, then you know all you can store there is authentic feeling. Pain is never authentic feeling; it is an emotion. Emotions are not supposed to come from life to life to life. The only reason why you are feeling it this strong in this life right now – all of you are feeling it this strong in this life – that is because, as others have said already, this is your top life. That means this is a coming together of all the other lives that you have ever lived and are living right now. The top life needs to integrate all of these different layers because you are going to need all of them. It is like Da Ejakasan'da Kuthumi Valen San and the others have said before... It is pretty easy to explain actually, but I am going to see if it actually would make a difference with you, for you, to you. It is like we have explained before, you need to realize that pain and the sensation of pain is no more unpleasant than the sensation of joy. It is the judgment that you have about the pain that is making it so difficult, you see?

So, if you allow yourself to integrate it fully instead of experiencing it as something unpleasant, if you do not identify with it but if you accept it fully, and unify with it, then you reclaim all that old energy that is still part of you but that has been put into certain patterning. As you are in this top life right now, in a very short while you will have the ability to reinvent the patterning. Basically what you will be doing is, as was said here this weekend, is reboot or wash your energy so that it is pure again and it has no longer the remainders of all of these old types of patterning. That is what is happening.

Now, in your lives you have often played... you have often played the role of someone who was doing a lot of things for other people, and instead of being rewarded for it, you were punished for it every single time because those others would rather claim what you were doing for them as theirs than to give you any type of credit. You have chosen lives of slavery in the past, lives of wiccans in the past and so many of these people that really came to earth with a message and were usually punished because of the message. So that needs to be undone, all of that, but first you need to take all of it together. Don't see it as an identification. Don't say, "there is me and there is my pain", even though it is in the body. But see it as one thing. It is all you, and you have the power to change you. You don't have the power to change the mind. You only have the power to change you and to not allow the mind to come in. If you do that, the pain will eventually go away.

We will see you again the coming five days. This is something we will be working on because as you will learn in the coming five days, the illusions that you are mastering aren't just based on what happened to you this life but since this is your top life, it is about all the illusions that run through all of your lives and how they affected all of those lives. And that is something that we will bring up in the coming days. But you will get rid of it. Okay? Thank you so much.

Well then, my beloved Imzaia, it was, as always, fun to answer your questions. It isn't always as fun to see you frustrated as you can get. You can sometimes get so frustrated. I am not just talking to one of you. I am talking to all of you. All of you can get so very fucked up. You do it to yourself. You do it to yourself because you don't yet allow yourself to see the complete and full you. If you do, you will see things changing in your lives, becoming more different. You are always the master of your reality, always.

And as you are bringing all of these pieces together now, you will see in the coming days and weeks, I am not speaking of the coming years, I am speaking of the coming days and weeks, and that is why you are here now, that is why you are doing these things. That is the point because the time of change is happening to you right now.

Don't Give Up!

All I can ask of you, all of you: Don't give in now! Don't give up now! Don't you think that the mind would have nothing better than you giving up near the end of this journey because then that would mean that all the energy that you have built up all over the years, all of it, that is about ready to climax is gone and is there, available for the mind to use. That is why you are being attacked right now. You are amazing power sources right now, and as you are learning how to claim your power, then it becomes dangerous for those who would harvest it, so don't allow that to happen. Claim your energy right now and you will see in the coming days and weeks what that is all truly about, all of it. So don't give up! Just hold on. You will feel the energy build up more strongly than even now. And why? Because multi-dimensional energy builds up in an exponential way. At first it goes really slow but near the end, if you have this much energy all around you, it just exponentially increases. At a certain point it will become almost unbearable. It could feel like you want to burst out of your skin. Well, let it happen. Let it happen. Your skin is not real anyway, but your power is. It is real.

And then there is one more thing that I would like to say before we finish and I would like to say that to you [directed at Akeyasan 8] because you didn't ask your question.

Da Akeyasan 8: Oh, I was not sure about it yet.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Oh yes, I know. But that is why I wanted to answer it for you anyway. Your question was about us working together and about all of that information that you had stored lately and how can you bring that out, that you needed my help, yes.

Well, first of all you don't need my help. You don't need my help. I need your help. Then there was silence! I need your help much in the same way as I need all of your help, don't you understand?

Da Akeyasan 8: How?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: By opening your mouth, my dear! By speaking up. It is time for you to claim who you are. You and I have been working together for a very long time. Now is the time to open your mouth, to start speaking and to trust the process.

Do you think for any channel it is easy to sit there and talk for hours and hours and hours without knowing what you are going to be saying? No, but you just allow the process to happen. That is all you need to do.

Da Akeyasan 8: But I need your help with this!

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Well, you are talking.

Da Akeyasan 8: Yes, of course! I wanted to sit there.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Oh, come sit over here!

Da Akeyasan 8: No!

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Good, that's good! There she is.

Da Akeyasan 8: Hello friend.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Hello friend.

Why do you need my help. What do you think you cannot do?

Da Akeyasan 8: I have been working with Imzaia World for too short a period of time to be able to answer the questions that I am certain will be asked. Those are the moments I need your help.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: But I am always there. So, if you want my help, you got it, but you need to realize that you don't really need it. All you really need from me is assurance, the fact that there is someone standing behind you, so to speak, supporting you. You don't need my help; you need my support. So I will support you obviously. I have already told you, I have already spoken through you.

Da Akeyasan 8: Yes, yesterday. I was sitting on the toilet.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: One of my favorite spots!

Da Akeyasan 8: And then you said: " Follow me, I will teach you and then you will reach the stars."

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yes, you will, definitely. No doubt about it. Why the toilet?

Da Akeyasan 8: I don't know. You mentioned it so often, so.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Because you were letting go. You have said it, okay. So go for it, and I will continue talking to you, and don't be afraid.

Da Akeyasan 8: I am not afraid.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Okay, great!

And so, my time has come. Is there anybody interested in a visit to the toilet really soon? You! Ah, dear Imzaia, you have no idea how good it feels to be loved by you. You have no idea how wonderful it is to have the chance to finally start talking like a normal person to you. This feels so good.

If I look at the work that has been written about me by so many others (I am not just talking about me; I am talking about all the others as well), if I look at the pictures that were painted sometimes, if I look at the books that were written about me, if I look at the things that were speculated about my history or my past or my interactions with so many others, the only way I could actually communicate to this planet earth for such a long time was to follow those guide lines that you gave me because you were defining my energy. You were saying, "Adamus is such and such and such a person, and he has this type of accent, and he is this type of energy, so this is probably the way that we need to expect to see him". But I am that I am. So, if I am a part of you, and you conceptualize me in a certain way, do you give me the liberty to be who I am? Now, you do! Now I can finally talk to you from the heart, and that has been such a long time since I was able to do that. I have been able to do it with Shaumbra, I have, and I am able to do it now with you. And I hope that this is the energy that will sweep the planet. Correction: I don't hope it, I know it.

You need to understand that I am nothing if not you. There is nothing better about me than there is about you. I am the same. The only thing that I mastered are the illusions, is the mind and is the fact that you need to die on this planet, is the fact that you need to be limited on this planet, is the fact that you need to have a body, is the fact that you need to be small.

I have flown dragons since my liberation into the energy world. I have danced on the ring systems of planets. I have touched the heart of a star as I was going into it, accessing that portal. And I have touched the face of God, and I found myself in my very heart. And I in my meditations visualize all of you doing exactly that. And I am proud because you are that you are, Imzaia. You are that you are.

Be proud, keep your head up, and know that change is coming. It is not decades away. It is not years away. It is not even half a year away. The thing that you have been waiting for is at hand. Get ready!

And so it is.
