I was, yes I was Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San and I am, yes I am Adam G. Welcome everybody! Nice to see thee... etceterree!

Hello everybody! I am the last one to come in today to bring you the last bits of information that you will need, if you need them to go on, on your path, to do all of those things that you have been speaking about.

I know that the road that has been traveled in the last few days was oftentimes hard. Some of you have done wonderful things in the last few days. All of you, however, have done magnificent things in the last few moments. You should see how the energy has still changed in the last few hours here in this room and here in your very hearts.

It is amazing to see how when somebody or a group of people choose to go through an experience that takes some time, that has a beginning and an end, at least the thing that they are spending together, that you see then you automatically build up this climax, how you automatically preprogram for yourselves that you are going to walk the path, and that the path is going to go up. This is the power that lies within you.

Questions and Answers

But anyway, I know that you are short on time, as the illusion would have it, so I am immediately going to bring this into question and answer. There were some people that I wanted to see again. You, for instance, over there and you. Who wants to start?

[Akeyasan 1 sits on Da Ambika San's lap] Okay. Oh, we're serious. Yes, I am listening.

Akeyasan 1: I wanted to ask something. I wanted to know what exactly happened during my birth.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: You were born.

Akeyasan 1: Yes, but why was it so difficult to be born?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: The first few months after that as well, you mean?

Akeyasan 1: Yes, and actually when it happened, my mother was in a lot of pain, stress.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yes.

Akeyasan 1: Why did I choose to come in like that?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Actually, I can answer you very briefly. This had nothing to do with you. It had everything to do with her. You could have come in, let's say, the Lemurian way, if you wanted to. It was nothing to do with your energy field. It was her energy field. It was a very low vibration, the energy field of your mother. So it was difficult for you to exactly attach to her matter, to be born into her. It took you several attempts as well, and actually that was the last one that you were going to try. Then you would choose a different path, a different type of parents. You would have probably even chosen a different country.

But, in the end it worked out and it actually helped her to raise her energy as well. That is also why you were crying so much. First of all, you were in a low energy field and you weren't used to that, and at the same time it also built up a lot of frustration into her, which in the end she transformed into love. So it was a good thing for both parties. You got to learn more about the energies that you would be exposed to as you were here on this Earth, and she got a chance to grow. So, it's win-win situation.

Akeyasan 1: And why was I born in New Caledonia?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Why not? It's just a space on Earth. It's not exactly... people think that it's very important the place on the planet that you are born into, but that's just because you're thinking of the planet as...

Akeyasan 1: ... as a space

Adamus: Divided. Yes, as a space, as a divided space at that. It's just about the planet. It's just about the energy that you were born into. It's not the space itself.

So, where you were born holds little meaning. More important is when you enter into the planet.

Akeyasan 1: Okay. I don't think I have more questions.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: That's good. Do not think. So I have a question: Are you feeling comfortable on that lap?

Akeyasan 1: Yes.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yes? Okay. Can I try? Okay, thank you, thank you.

Yes.

[Akeyasan 2 also sits on Da Ambika San's lap]

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: I'll let this one go, too. Yes, hello!

Akeyasan 2: Hi.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Hi.

Akeyasan 2: What would you like me to tell you?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Well, I wanted to continue our conversation.

Akeyasan 2: Okay. It was interesting to watch what happened, trying to do the exercise. It was kind of like there were four or five of us. There was the one watching and witnessing what was going on. There was the one who was trying to do what she was told to do the exercise. Then there was something that was trying to give me panic attacks because, "Help, I have never read anything of this! I never... I don't know what to do. I don't know anything about the exercises or the violet flame." Then there was the one who was afraid to get kicked in the butt because I felt like I have failed. And actually, if I think about it, I feel the pain, if I feel it, I don't feel the pain. It's like yes-no, yes-no, in-out, in-out, in-out.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yes, that's a very good start.

Akeyasan 2: Okay.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yes, and about all these pieces of you, a lot of you, what happens... okay, you experienced them now separately, what happens if right at this moment I would ask you to blend all of those together? What is left over?

Akeyasan 2: I don't feel my body, bodies anymore, especially after the exercise. I can't describe it in words.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: I can. In my opinion, you have never felt your body. You have just felt the illusion of the body. Now you are feeling the body.

Akeyasan 2: True, true.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: There we go!

Akeyasan 2: Let me tell you what happened next.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yeah! I'm curious.

The Wings of the Love Angel

Akeyasan 2: Many people came to me to thank me for what I said. I have been kissed. I have been told how beautiful I am. That was a bit funny because I never... I don't look much in the mirror. And I always am surprised when I see myself because I don't feel like that, what I see. I feel long, small... so it's always a surprise. And then I was afraid of being trapped in the illusion of form because someone literally said to me, "You have such beautiful shapes."

Akeyasans: You have, oh yeah!

Akeyasan 2: Well, I don't know what to think about that.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Well of course, shape is obviously an illusion, yes? And those who would lust after a specific shape or those who would be attracted to that aspect of you are stuck in an illusion.

However, although that can happen to you, it can never draw you back into an illusion, if you don't let that happen. It is all about how you value what is being said, you see? If actually that thing that was said to you would make you feel like a better person, then you are stuck. But if it matters not, then you can see it as an actual compliment. But it is not about the form. It is then about the energy behind the shape, you see?

So people will continue to say in coming years that, “You look beautiful, you are wonderful, I love the way you are created” or whatever it is they would say, but that will never go away, you see? But people will be aware of what they are saying, and that will be the difference. They will be aware.

Akeyasan 2: I am aware now that I am touching people in the heart.

Da Ojadasan’ka Adamus Valen San: Yes, love angel!

Akeyasan 2: But please tell me, what can I do more to serve humanity?

Da Ojadasan’ka Adamus Valen San: Spread your wings!

Akeyasan 2: In what way? Just be?

Da Ojadasan’ka Adamus Valen San: Like this [extends the body’s arms].

Akeyasan 2: I have been literally lifted up four times today by people.

Da Ojadasan’ka Adamus Valen San: Well, I will show you how to spread your wings. [to Da Ambika San] Could you take that mike?

I am going to let you do something that to you actually is very natural. I’m going to ask you to stand here, not say a word, just look all of these people here into the eye, and I want you to imagine, you can do it with your hands, if you like or you can just stay like this, but I want you to imagine, as you are looking into their eyes that there is a set of wings opening up behind you and then it is enveloping all of them, and I want you to see what happens then, okay? Okay, just do that.

Hey control tower! T minus 3 seconds. T minus 2 seconds. We have angel lift off!

Now open those wings. Just open them and let your energy envelop everybody. It’s the wings of the love angel. Just make that energy bigger. And then, as you make it as big as you possibly can, just shoot it right out of your heart and let it happen. And inside of you, you hear, “I am that I am love!” Just let that happen... Just let that happen now.

What does it do to you?

Akeyasan 2: I feel growing.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: That's great! Now, will you remember to do that always? I mean it would be a bit silly to walk around town like this, but you can do it without your arms. Do it without your arms now. And feel what that does to your body.

Akeyasan 2: Heating up.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Sorry?

Akeyasan 2: Heating up.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yes, that's because so much energy is flowing through it. And now your body has become the transmitter, you see? That is what the 3D body is for, to transmit energy. It's like an antenna. And it can send and receive, and that is what it is doing now.

You, my love, have been closed off for too long because of the illusion of separation. Every time you feel that illusion hit you, I'm going to ask you to just start sending and receiving. Sometimes when it feels harder to do so, you just go stand in front of your mirror and you open those arms wide. If you do that ten times, I guarantee you, the eleventh time you won't be needing those arms... Great!

Keep those eyes focused like that; keep that heart open like that, and you're going to be fine. Then you don't need those five aspects of you. You just need that one. You see? That's who you are. And that's what you need to do if you want to help Earth because that changes people, you see? It changes their cellular structure, it changes their DNA, and it changes their day. Because of your look that you give them the course of their day and the potentials that they will choose moments after, after you have seen them, will be different. Thank you!

Namaste and all that!

Anybody else wanna have a moment with Adam G.?

[Akeyasan 3 shows a book to Adamus]

The I AM Presence

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: I know my book!

Akeyasan 3: Ah, yes. Well, I would like to know for the people there, once upon the illusion of time I received this book about the I Am Presence? I found it too difficult at that time. It was too early for me, I guess. And now, under the influence of the Imzaia channelings I decided to read, start again and learning. Since the book was written in the 30s of the previous century and I would like to know if there are any changes to consider, or adaptations to make for the new energies. So far, I don't see any contradictions.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Ah yes, I'm making an update.

Akeyasan 3: Ah, you're making an update.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: I'm writing an update, actually. It's going to come in through one of these people probably, and as that happens, please change the picture! I mean, come on! Do you see any similarity?

Attendee: It's just an illusion!

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: I know! It was the ugliest picture in my house. Ah, well... Anyway, there is an update coming to this, yes. It will be coming out soon. I guess through her!

Akeyasan 4: Translate or what?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: No, an update, honey! Writing. A new version of that book.

Akeyasan 4: Da Adamus San, I haven't got a feeling to write. Come in please and help me!

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Come in?

Akeyasan 4: Yes, why not?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Okay, I will do that!

Akeyasan 4: Okay.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: I will do that, but you need to start it. I will never knock on your door.

Akeyasan 4: I asked you several times.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: I know! But you have to sit down and start writing. That's what you have to do. You have to take the action yourself. You have to be in front of your PC or in front of your paper or whatever you want to write with and start writing the first sentences. Gradually, you will feel me take over.

Akeyasan 4: Okay.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Because this is not something that I am going to write through you. It is something that we write together, you see?

Akeyasan 4: Okay.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Always together.

Akeyasan 4: Always together! Always!

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Always together. We shall dance again, darling.

Akeyasan 4: Oh yes, we will, as we did before!

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yes, yes.

But anyway, I didn't want to take all the attention away from you [to Akeyasan 3]. There is going to be a new version because a lot of the stuff that is in there is outdated now. It was right for an old energy paradigm and in the new energy, the Free Energy especially, so many things have changed. A lot of the complexity is gone. Things are getting more simple, you see? So the only thing that is still complex in your reality are all of your illusions. That's why we choose to have a set of 6 illusions with 12 attributes each because you have made it so complex. But it's going to be much more simple.

Akeyasan 3: Okay, thank you.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Thank you!

Akeyasan 4: May I ask one question?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Sure, honey! Come on over. [to Da Ambika San as Akeyasan 4 sits on her lap] You're having a field day, aren't you?

Akeyasan 4: Is it going to be about this book?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: No, that's just a book. I'm actually getting ready now, I am just getting ready now to create an entirely new piece of work based on everything that was written before and updating all of that. So it's going to be a sort of manual, if you want, about reality and about getting to that 'I Am space,' you see? So that's a good one, isn't it?

Akeyasan 4: I hope so.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: I hope so, too.

Akeyasan 4: Thank you.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Thank you! We're going to do that together.

Akeyasan 4: I give you a kiss!

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: She touched me!

Anyone? Anyone? I don't see anyone. Yeah, all of you.

Da Ambika San: Not together!

Multidimensional Blood

Akeyasan 5: Okay, I have a question. When I was 16 years old, I came home from school and I began to bleed everywhere in my body. After that, I was a couple of weeks and months in the hospital and they did surgery. They took out my spleen. So I asked all my life, "Why is that happening to me and is it a problem that I don't have it anymore?"

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: It's not a problem that you don't have it anymore. And the only reason why it happened is because you had a choice. You had a choice to either stay on the planet and continue with your work, to take up your work actually, or to leave at that point. So all the time before that, you could say, was more like a 'getting to know Earth again' phase. Just like a scouting mission to see if it was worthwhile to stay and if you could do the things you that wanted to do, as you came into the planet.

The reason why it happened to your blood is because a lot of your blood had to go out of your system because as you stepped into the new paradigm, the blood becomes multidimensional, you see?

This has actually been spoken about years ago by that group of entities that you know as 'The Family of Light.' They have spoken years ago about the blood becoming multidimensional, and actually, it already is in all of humanity. They haven't yet discovered it, however. They still see blood the same way, but if you were to look and to talk with an actual physician that knows a lot about blood, he would say that things have changed in the way they are treating people because the blood composition has changed a lot. That is because there are now attributes in the blood that used to only show up in your junk DNA, which are basically multidimensional, so the blood itself is becoming more and more... It is actually based on not just blood, but in your light body and in many other bodies that you carry, there is only energy streams going on. The blood is now mixed with this energy stream, and that is what happened to you. You decided to have like a transfer of blood. It's a change of system. It changed who you are and it changed your potentials.

Akeyasan 5: I have another question. I am curious about the energy I'm carrying. Can you tell me something about it?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yes, I can and I'm going to do that in private because you will want to hear it in private.

Akeyasan 5: Okay.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: We'll talk later obviously.

Akeyasan 5: Thank you very much.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Thank you!

Akeyasan 6: Hi.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Hi.

Akeyasan 6: I'm going home now and I feel I'm going to a new home.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yes, you are! You are going in there! That's your home.

Following the Calling of the Heart

Akeyasan 6: Yeah, that is my home. I sometimes feel when I'm here, in this group, that I want to travel with the group to England, to Peru, to Hawaii, but sometimes I feel or think - I'm not sure what it is - that it might be an escape from the things I have to do.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: What do you think you have to do?

Akeyasan 6: I'm not sure.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: So you are afraid to escape that which you don't know what it is? Very human condition. That's normal.

Look, in essence, you don't have to do anything and you have to do everything. The things that will help you help others are going to be those things that you can impossibly resist. It's not going to be possible to resist them because they are the calling of your heart. If you just stay in that space, you are automatically going to be drawn to those things. And sometimes you won't even know why they are happening until you are a bit further down the road and then you see why exactly these things happened to you.

Now you, actually, even though you will not believe it, are a great teacher. You have the capacity to teach things to others. Yes, yes, this was not really clearly told you during that private session. It wasn't really clear, the discussion that you had. You knew that there were things that were going to come to your path and that you were going to guide others, but now I'm telling you very directly, because there is no in between, that you are a teacher. And you are going to teach what it is like to live your life to the highest potential, to the maximum amount of love and joy and freedom. And that means that you are going to experience that because you can only teach about what you know.

So, find those things in the coming time that are going to bring you this, that are going to bring you that love and that joy and that freedom so that you can teach it onto others, you see.

I want you to know, you are on the right path. You have made some major decisions in your life, about the marriage, about all those things, and I know that you will look twice before you step into the similar situation yet again.

So, liberty is at hand, and you are going to feel that to such an extent that you are going to want to spread it around. And that is the teaching that you have within you. So, follow the calling of your heart and you will see it will bring you to spaces that you - and I don't mean spaces on this planet, I mean spaces within the human soul - that you never considered before. You see? It will all begin... I can tell you this: it will all begin after January 28th. Things will change greatly, and I won't say that on January 29th you will start this, but I will just say, that's when the space will open up completely, within you as well. So that's when you'll be able to follow that calling.

And I'm sure that in about a year or so, we will speak again, and you will be sitting in a similar situation such as this one, and I am telling you that you have done a good job. And you say, you speak to those people about all of your plans that are still at hand. You are going to have quite a different life than the one that you are having now. Just get ready for that and don't look back. Have no fear. That's all that you need.

Okay, thank you.

Akeyasan 6: Thank you.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Anybody else? You?

Akeyasan 7: Yes.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: In your case I should say 'aloha!'

Akeyasan 7: Aloha!

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Mahalo!

Akeyasan 7: Mahalo! I have two questions actually.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Shoot!

Akeyasan 7: One is: why did Zoyla's father leave us?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: What's the second question?

Akeyasan 7: The second question is about Hawaii.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yes. They're connected.

Akeyasan 7: Oh? So tell me, please.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: First question: you needed your liberty, your complete and utter liberty. If that person had not left you, had not 'abandoned' you then actually you would have turned out quite different than you are now. I'm not saying that you're already at the end of your journey. I know that there is still a lot of things going on within you about finding your fullness and all of that, but in that case you would have become so dependent that you would only have been a shadow of the person that you are now. Nothing to do with him personally, but just a situation that would have developed.

You know sometimes, all you need is a connection to be made to bring a soul in that's going to be very important. And you know this. And that's what happened and that's all that needed to happen. So that's why I said, what's the second question? You would have never made that step that you are going to be making now, if you hadn't been 'abandoned.'

Akeyasan 7: So then it was already planned that I would go to Hawaii?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yes, you were planning that already. That's your original script.

Akeyasan 7: Oh? I don't even know what to do yet, what to do there.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Well, I would say, breathe the air.

Dance With the Fear

Akeyasan 7: Which talents to use... I mean, how can I be of service? In which way?

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Well, you know that drawing that Jeshua made today about the future and the past and the I and the other? “What am I going to do in Hawaii?” That sounds like the future of myself! That sounds like mind. Fascinating. Don't worry about that! Be in the now and follow the steps that the now has to offer you! You don't need an answer to that question because frankly, there are so many things that you can do in that future that if I'm going to say just one thing, I'm going to define you and I won't have that.

Akeyasan 7: Okay, then I felt it already, because there are so many things that I want to do.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Yes, there you go, and I'm not going to define you with those because it's fun to see how this is going to turn out because you know, and that is the value of new energy potential, of Free Energy potential. Sometimes you will have a potential come into your life, drawing you to a space filled with so many new potentials, and the choice you then make to create one of those potentials as a reality, sometimes puts you on a path, and on that path you create an entire new set of potentials so that one choice turns into an entirely new world of potential. That's Free Energy.

In old energy you had karma and stuff, so that meant that once you chose a potential, there you were on the route towards that potential, and in the end it was going to manifest. And then you were there and you would see new lines opening up. Now you choose a potential and you start walking. And as you start walking, this potential here explodes into an entirely new big bang of potential, and you arrive. And by the time that you have made a new decision, it might even begin again and again and again.

So, it's about following the heart again. It's about doing just that, following that road that becomes bigger as you are walking it because you are walking it. You see? But you have to start with one step and that step is the move that you are going to make.

And I am going to tell you this because I know you get afraid easily: it is going to be scary. So the next time you get afraid, just remember my words. It is going to get scary. And at the same time you are going to succeed. So once you feel that fear, just step right through it and keep following those potentials as they are opening up, you see? And the fear will be there. I am going to say it right out, right now. It will be there, but you now know what it is. You now know to expect it.

And you know, it's like that family party that you are having and you're throwing that party and you know that auntie Lucy - I'm just naming one - is going to come by, and everybody hates Lucy, you know? But she is going to come anyway. But you know that she's going to be there and you can be prepared. And who knows? Maybe you might have a fun night with Lucy after all.

So, if fear might come, you are prepared that it will come and have some fun with your fear, you know? Dance with your fear! Have a drink with your fear! You know it's going to be there, so you might as well have fun with it. It's an old pathway that is part of you, but as you keep walking through the fear, you will create new and new and new potentials, and in the end you will be in such a different world that there is no more fear because the fear is attached to your old paradigm, not to your new paradigm. And that's what you're walking into.

So basically, it all looks good!

Akeyasan 7: Good, thank you very much.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: Thank you!

Next question. Hello.

Akeyasan 8: Hello. I liked what you said to her and I know for myself and I just want to hear some words which feel good. Some kind of support, some kind of...

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: You are gonna make it! Go, go, go! I have nothing else to tell you besides what you already know. You know that you need to follow your heart, you know that you need to let go of some old things in your life and and that you are going to make major jumps, and that things are going to happen for you. But, I don't need to tell you this. You need to tell yourself this. Because I don't need to tell you what to do, you already know what you want to do. All you need is the guts to do it. And you already have those guts, you already found them within yourself, you found them this very week actually. They were building up for quite a while, but now the ice has melted, has broken through. So all that is required of you now is to take some steps, to take action. And you will see that that action will bring you to spaces that I think you are going to be surprised about. You think you have, and most humans do, you think you have this entire plan in your head but it is going to go bigger and further than you think. But then again, I could tell this to everybody here.

Everybody here is going to make some jumps. I am just looking forward to seeing you on the other side. Let's just say that. And once you're there, then we will continue talking. Okay? Well, thank you.

The Path Has Begun

Well then, my loves, what else is there left to say now? A lot! But I'm not going to say it through this channel right now. I am going to send it over that which you call 'the Akenet' because you have activated it. A lot is changing. You will find a lot of more information on the Akenet, which has been more active now than it has ever been in the past already, while it is just beginning. That is so beautiful to see, that you have taken something, which is part of the past, and you have made it into something bigger, something that is not just connected to the Earth, but that is connected to the cosmos. And one of the big connection portals, what you would call a 'router' through the internet, is actually the Pleiadean energy. It is through the Pleiadean energy that came in today that the Akenet is spreading all over the universe, connecting, making one that which wasn't one before. And that is beautiful.

I would have so many more things to tell all of you and I want you to know that although the information through the courses that these people here will give will continue, a personal path will always start up in such a case. That means that you and I are going to stay in touch. Sometimes you will find out that it's not going to be me, it's going to be someone else, another reflection of the one that is going to be in touch with you and that's going to guide you one way or the other. But you need to know that the path has begun.

And I invite all of you tonight, as you drive home or lie in your beds, to start up that contact. Don't ask for any type of energy. The one that needs to be with you will be with you. In some cases it will be those that have spoken in the course of the last few days. In other cases it's going to be very personal. You might even find out that you are going to be reacquainted with a mother or a father or let's say a son that is going to help you through this process. Doesn't necessarily mean that these people haven't reincarnated back on Earth, but as I said, all is connected to all, and all higher selves are living all lives at once. So that is the way that you can be in touch with this higher self energy. Could either be mine or anyone else's.

Make that connection tonight as you are in your beds because it will be a great deal of help in the weeks that are ahead.

I love all of your dearly. I respect all of you to endless, endless skies. I wish you wellness, strength, and prosperity. I wish you those lives that you knew were always ahead. All of you here knew that things would change on the planet, all of you. None of you here would ever think that this could go on the way it did, and obviously, it won't.

So always remember, as you also write your statements in a minute: you are pioneers and what you carry in your hearts is going to be the paradigm for the new planet Earth. So never forget that, ever! Carry only the highest potentials within you, and we will speak again.

I bid you adieu.

And one last time in these days, I will take the opportunity and say unto this world:

I am that I am that I that I am that you are.

And so it is.
