

The Study of Vibration

Session 203

ONLINE TRANSCRIPT FOR IMZAIA.WORLD

Da Jeshua San: Before we go into the ekaraia, I invite you to become aware of the special nature of this moment. A lot of things are going on. A lot of changes are happening, right now, on the planet, and you are part of that change. From my personal experience I can tell you, that this morning, and in the course of this night I have felt the energy of Solarys come very close. It was an invitation that was made to let go of parts of myself, and to let those parts be replaced by the energy of source, spirit, whatever name you want to give to this energy. I know that this invitation isn't one that is just for me. I know it is an invitation for all of humanity. We are all one. Anybody can do this.

So as we wait now, for the recording to begin, I invite you to take a couple of minutes in silence, and to choose if you want to let go, as a type of - I am going to use a heavy word now, don't be afraid - as a type of death. At the same time it is a type of rebirth, when you connect to that aspect of yourself which is the most pure, the most essential, timeless, spaceless, beautiful.

I know, you have all felt the energy of Da Solarys San, yesterday, as she came in. At the same time I know, that you know, that this is just a name, just another name. It is like you have the name 'God,' you have the name 'Allah,' 'source,' 'spirit,' and your own name, for your own name holds as much divinity as any of these other names would hold. You have been taught to be little. Now it is time to remember the grandness that you are. So take a minute, and make that choice if you want, and I will see you on the other side.

[Moment of silence]

Before we begin, as you stay in this energy, you know that Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San is going to come in now, in a minute, and he has asked me actually, to ask the entire fellowship, to come here, to come closer, and just to sit here. For a while ago they were asked - and I know this might sound strange - but for a while ago, in Hawaii, they were asked to - how shall I explain this - to be a part of the radiance of this energy, as it comes in.

Each of us, everybody here, carries certain potentials for a new planet Earth, certain paradigms for a new planet Earth, and they as well. I know, that each and every one of you are going to be given this information on a very personal level: what is your aspect, what are you carrying, what is the gift you brought with you when you came here to this Earth. And you are going to be asked at a certain point in your evolution, and it is going to be sooner rather than later, to start emitting that special type of energy that is yours. Only, it isn't yours, it is part of this universe, it is part of Da Gaia San, waiting to receive the new input. They have already been given this information. It was information about grace, heart, soul, creation, etc..

And as such I am - listening to Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San here - I am going to ask you to start radiating, start emitting that. And this is not a process that is just going to take place for the hour or so, that this ekaraia is going to last, it is a constant request, to keep on doing this as the new hologram, or the new paradigm for Earth is being created. Maybe you don't know the name completely yet of that thing that you are carrying, but I know, that you know deep down what it is all about, such as love, for instance.

And maybe in these coming minutes, before we go into the ekaraia, you, sitting here, will also receive this, this information in yourself, in your heart. Don't try to go into your head. There is nothing going on there but thoughts anyway. Just try to go to the heart. There you will find that pearl of existence that you have brought with you. If you hear, or feel, or sense, in whatever way, that name, Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San is asking you - as he apparently can't let me finish here - is asking you to also start radiating that, start emitting that gift. It will assist you in gliding into this new era that is awaiting all of us.

So just take a deep breath. I know you have been talking about gifts, so receive that gift. That gift that is not yours alone, but it is there for the entire race, the entire planet, the entire cosmos. At the same time, just stay grounded, keep your two feet on the Earth. Don't start floating around or anything. Nothing has changed within you, it was always a potential, and actually you have been doing this all your lives. Only now you are going to do it consciously. So enjoy, as you, maybe for the very first time, are more part of the energy of this ekaraia than ever before. See you on the flip side!

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San

I am that I am, Adamus Saint Germain, and let it be known, that this is the very last time that I will use that name.

My, my, my, what have we here, Imzaia? A gathering, a celebration of new energy, is it? Maybe even of free energy. I am very, very grateful to be sitting here in front of you. I am also very grateful for my love, this channel here, to stop the integration that is happening at this moment, and to come sit here, so that I can speak. I could have spoken through everybody, by the way, but you must believe this, mustn't you? Anyway let us get going.

For me this is a strange moment. It is a particularly strange event, because this talk that I am having here right now, was promised to me by Da Pah Kwan Yin San hundreds of years ago, actually. It has been something I have been building up towards for a very, very long time as such, and for a little while there it looked, as though these things would not take place. Only now, they are taking place. That is amazing, to say the least. It is also amazing, that it would be up to a former human to come in here now, and to be the messenger for all of this. Because I know, this is a truly cosmic event, and you would have guessed, I would have thought, a long time ago, that it would be up to a cosmic being, such as Da Lemuaya San, or Da Solarys San, or whomever, to come and sit here and make this declaration. And yet it is up to a human. Isn't that interesting?

These cosmic races that have spoken to us such a long time already, have always said: humanity is the key, and indeed it is. Why? I will tell you why. You might think, that we as humans, as masters in disguise, are a small race, that we lie around somewhere in the corner of this galaxy, not to be found by so many creatures. You may think, that the human race is one that came around by accident, because of some organic soup, that was hit by lightning - as your scientist are saying - that created the first spark of life.

What is that word again? Duh! It is not about accidents, it is not about cosmic soup, or organic soup, lying around in a puddle somewhere on Earth. How little does humanity and the science of humanity think of itself, if that were to be the case. In the last ekaraia by Da Pah Ekara San you have already been told how this planet was formed, and how angelic energy took a role in this, angelic energy that came to this Earth, and went through all of these cycles, so that they could forget who they were, as they integrated more and more elements of creation into the very planet itself.

And Da Gaia San is indeed a pearl. It is a beautiful, beautiful pearl. At first it was just a blank pearl, nothing going on there, much like any other rock that was going to be formed in space, in the vastness of space. And then you, all of you, not just those sitting here, but everybody who will at one point listen to these words, or read these words, or even all of those that will never hear these words, you came around and you brought color with you. You brought vibration, and you brought sound, and you brought light. In fact, you brought divinity. You brought infinity. You brought a legend with you. A legend that had been spoken about in the angelic realms for such a long time already, that at one point, a planet, a last planet, would come to hold all of the knowledge, all of the celebration, all of the energy that was present within this cosmos.

And you did. It is not the planet that did this. It is you that did this. Humanity then is nothing more, or nothing less also, than a collection of energy, a coming together, a nexus - and at this point the nexus is becoming a catharsis - but a nexus, of energy, binding all of the elements of the cosmos together.

I know, the Pleiadeans have come into this realm a long time ago already, and that they spoke of the fact, that this Earth was a library for cosmic energy. That here, on this planet, you could find everything, the most pure things at least, that you could find everywhere in this universe, and in the universes around it.

The Magnificence of Earth

And it is true, only you are seeing such a small percent of it, are you not? You are just seeing the 3D of it. You are just seeing the material aspects of it, and maybe some are sitting here, I know, some are sitting here that would see more, that would see energy, that would see other things. And if you could see with your own eyes, like I can do right now, the energy of planet Earth, the magnificence of it, you would know what I am talking about.

So, I hope that you in your lives know many, many, young ones, those that haven't been polluted by limited thoughts as of yet, and still can see these things. And I hope that next to the bringing the element that you are bringing with you, the pearl, the gift for Earth, that you are bringing with you, as you are coming into the planet, yet again, that you also remember to stimulate, to be a support to these young ones, even from a distance, if necessary. You know where they are. They are walking the planet right now, all of them.

So please, keep stimulating them into seeing that which is there. It is not imaginary. It is not fake. You have seen it as you came into the planet. You know why a child emits such a pure love when it is a new born? It is very simple. First of all, because its energy is so pure, it is in a blank state. But at the same time, because it can see you. It can see you for who you truly are, and it sees your radiance, and it sees your beauty, and it sees your magnificence. And all you see when you look in the mirror is flesh, with maybe a little make up on the flesh. Yes, even the men these days. All you see is that, while there is so much more going on with you, with all of you.

Now, you have been told about the next year. You have been told about what is to happen, as you step into the new paradigm 2008 and beyond that. One thing that you will again start seeing is your own magnificence. And as ambassadors of free energy, that you as Imzaia, that you as Shaumbra, and that you as Lightworkers are, I hope you will remember your duty to stimulate the new consciousness, to be a stimulus to this. Please, remember this. And then let us get on with this message. I am quite anxious, in fact, to do this.

A Special Moment

My beloved, beloved Imzaia, my friends, my brothers and sisters, here we stand united, and as I said, it was a very personal moment for me to be here, a moment that has been promised to me a very long time ago. I will tell you why.

As I was living my life that you have known as Adamus Saint Germain, hmm, I have already told you, that my life was very shallow indeed, that my life was about money. It was about wealth, richness. It was empty, very empty, and I have told you, in Kealakekua Bay, how things started changing in my life when a small child, a small boy, came into my life, who was poor. And I, at that time, had the inclination to go out into the streets and I thought, I was doing a good deed, going into the streets, giving all my money away, as much as I could, because even if I would do that every single day for the rest of that human incarnation that I had back then, I still wouldn't have been able to give all the family money away, all the family wealth. I thought, I was doing a good thing, but as you have heard in that message that I gave you back then, I wasn't. I was just filling one void with another void, not just for myself, but also for those who have been receiving my supposed wealth, which was financial, not wealth of the heart. And this is what your planet has started as well.

As you look to the continents of your planet you see those who would have no food. You see those who would have no money, and actually, Western civilization, Western society, has been polluting these people by imprinting their own desire onto the African, for instance, or the Mexican, or the Indian, or the Peruvian, and I could on and on and on. It is not making them happy, is it? It is making them even more poor, is it not?

That is what has been happening on this planet. It was also happening in my personal experience, in my personal life. And then this young boy came along, who would turn out to be a vessel, a hidden energy, that would come into my life as my master teacher back then: Da Pah Kwan Yin San, Da Leysola San. And she would give me all of these insights. She would give me all of this information, really, about Earth, and how Earth wasn't doing too well. How everybody here believed, that their life was rich, that their life was based on the matter that they saw around them, that their life was very limited indeed, and they weren't seeing it. They weren't seeing it.

And so, as I began my quest for freedom, it turned out that, that quest would be an angry one at first. You know I tried to run away a couple of times. I didn't tell this story to a general audience. I only told it to a group of Imzaia that was there at the seminar, but at one point I tried to leave my master. I tried to leave all of it. And as I walked away, as I was walking on the path towards freedom, I thought. and I was preparing myself to have a wonderful good drink in a pub somewhere and maybe even have a shag. That was it. That was, what I was missing, I believe you, as you are not believing me. This was what I was missing.

Creating a Flower

I saw, as you know, this flower. I am not going to tell you the whole story again, but I saw this flower, and in the flower I saw true beauty. I saw true freedom. I saw true liberation. I saw love. I saw joy. I saw all of it. Turns out, that I would be the one to plant that flower, to stop me in my own path, as maybe some of you here have been stopped in their own path as they were trying to get away. It is something that happens quite often. You step onto a new path. A path that might bring you fear at first, because you think many strange things are going on. All of you who are sitting here have thought this. All of you who are listening to these words have thought this, and at a certain point, believe me, you have tried to run away. You have tried to get away from that which is the truth of your soul, and every time, as you did this, you were brought back onto the path. Sometimes very directly, by something literally stopping you in the road. At other times by something that would happen in your life, showing you, telling you, that you were doing a wrong thing. Sometimes it is very subtle and other times your higher self just kicks you in the ass as you are stopped.

Anyway, so it happened, that this flower, this little thing standing next to a tree which would turn out to be me, hehe, stopped me in my path, and I continued. I went back, but as I went back I was truly sure of myself, that I would do this, that I would reach the sense of mastery, and I have obviously. But, there is a big but(t) somewhere in this room. It's not mine! But, I was angry. I was angry that even back then, so many hundreds of years ago, I was trapped into living a life of illusion. I was trapped into living a life of separation, and how could they do this to me! Who was doing this to me? I wanted to know, who.

I knew, as Da Pah Kwan Yin San had told me about all her other lives: the life of the Jeshua, the life of the Krishna, the life of Arthur. I knew, that there was something big going on, so as there was something big going on, this must mean then, that something big was also being done to humanity. If not, then these masters would not come in, and they wouldn't do what they were doing. And I discovered that humanity was being turned into a slave race.

Now it is not the point to instill fear in you. It is not the point to bring you fear or poison for the mind. I don't want to do that, so I will not go into detail about what is happening exactly. If you want to have this information truly and freely, it will come on your path. But humanity was undone of its own power, and it was taken away from them through the DNA, through so many other aspects.

I was afraid. I was angry. I was shocked. And in my anger I said to my master at one point: 'I am singlehandedly going to stop this, hehe. In a way, I was right, because we are all one. That was the answer that I got from Da Pah Kwan Yin San after she laughed for about five minutes. I am singlehandedly going to stop this, and the honor that is bestowed upon me is to be found in the fact, that I may sit here in front of you today, to not be an actual person or energy who stops it, but to be the one to speak while the consciousness is coming into the Earth. It is happening right now.

So, forgive me, if my lecture - we are calling it ekaraias, or shouds, or channelings these days, but my lecture - is a little bit unstructured. It is because, you know, how these things go, you have been waiting for them all your life, and then they are there, and then you have planned for yourself how you are going to do them, and then you sit there and then you don't know what to say, and you don't know what to do.

A Standing Invitation

Well, I have been taught by my master back then, that all I have to do is be here now. Sit here now, be present, just like all of you. For I am not the one bringing in this consciousness. It is all of you. All of you sitting here. All of you present, even Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San, who is playing the music right now, is bringing in the energy. Even the people in this hotel, even those who would be listening right now, with their mp3 players on their heads, or listening to this at a later point, doing the dishes as they are listening, oh, they too, they too, are doing it. This is a focal point of energy where all time lines are brought together. So, even those who, ten years into the future, when the world already has become what it needs to become, will listen back to this and will send their energy back to this point in time, will have been a part of it. This is an open, standing invitation. And it is always going to be there, for this moment is indeed an akeneic one, running back and forth into the time of your experience. So even those who at that point of time would send their akeneic self into this moment, are going to have a strengthening effect.

This is something that you must know. This is a point zero, no, it is a point one. It is the beginning of something new and it will remain open. So everybody who will come onto this Earth as it turns into what it needs to turn into, who will come here, and who will want to paint their picture, who will want to add their artistry to it, will have the ability to do so. All they need to do is connect to this time.

And I am telling you here and now, that this is but an ending of something old. This point one, that I could call it, is, in fact, something that is going to remain in the timeline for a couple of days. I am just here right now to indicate the ending of all that crap that you have gone through as a race, that had made me so very angry back then. I, even now, must control myself. Good thing I learned control.

As I control myself right now in to not getting angry, I want you, however, to be aware, maybe for the very first time, really fully aware of what is happening on this planet. You might be a businessman listening somewhere. You might be a housewife sitting somewhere. You might be doing whatever it is you are doing and thinking, that you are on the right path. You might be a doctor saving lives as you cut open flesh. You might be a nurse assisting that doctor. You might be working in a grocery store somewhere, or you might be retired. You might be still in school. Whatever it is, that you think your linear path is right now, I want you to be aware, 100%, about this Earth and what is happening here.

Please, take that moment to do so! Look at your lives and ask yourselves: 'Am I truly happy from the inside out? Am I truly in love with All That Is, including myself, from the inside out? Am I experiencing a sense of freedom which is not based on external stimuli, which is not about chasing the dog's tail, so to speak, going from one desire, to the other desire, to the other desire. Am I finding inner freedom?'

And the mind can come in right now, and it could say: 'Of course, you are making money. You have got a house, you have got a car. You have got some children. You are happy. You have got a good pension plan. And you will be able to retire, and maybe, maybe go on a cruise somewhere as you retire, and do that until the day you die. You have got it, you have got it good, you know?' That is what your mind could tell you, or it could tell you so many other things. I am asking you again, however, to look back. If you can say, that every day, every moment, every second of your existence has been a happy one, then do not continue listening to my words.

If, however, you have felt frustration in your lives. If you have felt pain, you have felt stuck, you have felt anger, you have felt any type of emotion, I am asking you, I am imploring you, to continue listening, to hear what I am saying! And I know for a fact, that there has been no one on this Earth who has been happy as a constant presence.

This is, however, the natural state, it is the authentic state, and you have been listening to information for over a year now that has been telling you, that this is the underlying current of all things, the Heart of All Things: Universal love, universal joy and universal freedom. And that it is available. The only thing you have to do, is end your stories, because it is the stories that are going on up here, in the head, that are keeping you in the timeline, that are keeping you in the prison, and as some of you have dreamt here, it is a prison and it is not a prison. It is a prison, because you don't know better. It is a prison, because you can't think, that you can even escape from it, that better things are just around the corner.

It is like the Elephant

The other day Da Jeshua San, and some of his fellowship, were traveling the world and they were at a lecture somewhere, and a guy, who I love very dearly by the name of Da Lee Carroll San, the channel for Kryon, was speaking about an elephant. It is a topic. Speaking about an elephant, and how a small young elephant is tied to a tree, and it tries to get away from that tree. It tries to break itself free but it can't, because the tree is too big. And as the elephant grows up, every single day, it is tied to a smaller tree. In the end you have the very comical situation of a huge beast, an elephant, standing there tied to a tree with only a rope, and not even a tree but a twig, a very small twig that it would so easily break away from. Only, what has this animal learned in its brain? Very simple. It has learned, that when it feels the least bit of resistance, that it is stuck.

This is a very nice metaphor for what is happening to humanity. If you feel the least bit of resistance when you are trying to break away, when you are trying to free yourselves and those around you, you say: 'Oops, can't do it! Got to go back to work. Got to go back to the old life.' And you never truly find your passion. And so you live lifetime, after lifetime, after lifetime, here on this planet.

It is enough. Enough is enough, the indigos would say. It is enough. You can no longer stand for this for a very simple reason: Your human self, the human part of you, kept going back to the prison, kept going back to the prison. So at one point I, Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San, and so many, so many others that have spoken through this channel, or have spoken through all the other channels out there in the world, sent you an invitation. You might remember it, because it has balloons on it! And the invitation was sent to you in your dreams. I think, Da Ejakasan'da Kuthumi Valen San was responsible for the artwork. It even opened up and had a little song. It was sent to you in your dreams and it said: 'Come now, angelic being, come now! Be part of this meeting about liberation!' It was sent hundreds of years ago. Actually, I should say 'thousands of years ago,' for to us time has no meaning, and you weren't sitting in these bodies that you are sitting in right now. You had other shells around you. You carried other names. You had other lives, and other continents, but the invitation was sent.

You know what? 99% of humanity - I should say 99,12, but I'm leaving all these things behind, aren't I? I'm also going into non-definition - so 99% of humanity responded to the invitation and came to Da Kuthumi San's playing field, the non-sensic space. All of them came, except those who at the time had other plans for humanity, but you must know, to them, to that 1%, which is now your governments, that 1% was also given the invitation. You must know this.

So you came, and we told you, all of us, that we were working on a type of liberation, but that the human psyche, the human brain, the human mind could not undergo this liberation themselves because they were always afraid. The fear, even at that point, the pain even at that point, the mental prison, and as such the human condition, was already too strong for the human itself to break free. You had already been undone of so much of your power as your DNA strands were cut away from you, and you were left with two. You were already undone of so much of your wisdom, and your audacity was gone. The audacity that you sometimes need to stand up and shout out onto this world: 'I am that I am that I am.' Isn't that so?

How many times, this lifetime, have you stood on a rock, have you stood near the ocean, have you stood watching the sun come up, or watching it go down, understanding fully, that you are creating all of it, and that you have shouted the I AM? How many times? Do you know how many times we do this? All the time. Every single time. That is the reason why Da Pah Ekara San, and myself, have taught you about the I AM breath, so that you could once again pick up this routine, you see?

We All Agreed

But as you couldn't do it as humans, we talked directly to your higher selves. Thank god, they are always willing to listen. Because they were also stuck, stuck in the reincarnation process, not knowing if it would be a good thing to let go of that or not and being in love with Da Gaia San, being in love with Earth at the same time. So they couldn't let go either. Nobody of us or you wanted to let go of Da Gaia San. We had done the same thing to Mars prior to this, and we weren't going to do it again to Gaia. We wouldn't let this one go.

So you all came. We had a talk. There was cake, and as you of course all ran towards the cake, which there was not enough of, but it was generated again and again and again, as you finally settled in to your virtual chairs - I'm using a metaphor obviously, I am trying to make this a little bit funny - as you settled down, we told you about the plans we had for Earth, and the plans you had for Earth, as you went into it the very first time. And you all agreed. Not just the ones sitting here. Again, almost all of humanity agreed to liberate it, to liberate themselves.

And now we are here, after thousands of years of preparation, of building up an energy that would, in the end, be known as 'new energy' and would then find its exponential self, which would turn it into free energy. Thousands of years the build-up lasted, until the beginning of the 9-9-9 portal in 2007, in September, as you all know by now.

The 9-9-9 portal signified the ending of something old, and you were told that you would step into a three month process of letting go. And boy, or girl, did you let go! It hasn't been easy, and some parts are still kept. You are still holding on to some, and this is quite natural. I understand this, although at the same time, I don't. I understand it because I was human once, too. I don't understand it because I recognize that I am that I am, and in that recognition is the true liberation.

So those parts that you are still holding on to, keep them for a while. Put them in your closet somewhere, but wear them as a coat. I am sure that as time goes by - time that is no longer about years but about weeks - as time goes by, you will feel your skin start to itch as the coat will give you discomfort, and you will feel that you are attached too much to that closet of yours, and that you want to let go of it because it is an anchor. All these things in your lives are anchors, and they are holding you stuck in reality that you have created for yourselves.

But now the three months are almost over, and we are getting very near to the last section of the trinity portal, which is the 1-1-1, isn't it, and then the activation of that, the last one. We are getting very near to that now. And in that month of January I am sure, that you will find so much discomfort in the old paradigm, that you can't but let go.

I am very sorry to hear and to find now as I'm looking at all of you - and again I am looking at everybody who at one point will be in touch with this message - as I am looking at everybody, it saddens me in a way to see that even though all the information has been received and everything has come in, that some of you are still thinking about the old life, that some of you are still thinking about the past, and think about people and places and events, times that you value more than you are valuing the now. And it is not sad for me. It is not sad for your higher selves. It is sad for you as a person, because this just means, Imzaia, Shaumbra, Lightworker, whoever you are, it just means that you are making it more difficult for yourselves.

How are You Going to Value Yourself?

It is strange, isn't it, that those who would have all the information, that they are still making it difficult for themselves as well. You would think that those, who would have chosen to be the pioneers of new consciousness, that they would be having a very easy time letting go, but they are, you are, sometimes as stuck as those that haven't benefitted from the information at all. It is a human thing, I guess, to give value to a past event which isn't the now, and to give value, often times in a negative way, towards something which isn't now as well, which is called the 'future'. It is in the now that everything changes. It is in the now that you undertake your action. And it is even difficult for some of you sitting here and listening to this, that you could be part of it, that you could be part of all of this because you are but a human, but one out of so many billions of them running around on the planet. And you are not the one with the most money, or with the best career or with the best visage. That was a French word right there! That would have been my blessing, wouldn't it, to continue this in French, but the others are standing behind me.

So how, or why, or when, are you going to value yourselves better? Let's begin with the 'how'. How are you going to value yourself, even though you have all of the information? How are you going to find a way that you are going to understand, that change begins with one heart? As Martin Luther King walked up the stairs that would lead him towards the, well, speech of a life time, did he know, that he would be creating change? Oh yes! Because he chose it. He chose the moment and he acted on it. He put the intent behind the action, and that is why so much power has gone into that lecture.

So many others have followed the example: Gandhi. There was a moment when he chose to make a difference, and he did, and he continued making that difference all his life and then he dies, and then after so many years people would say, the mind actually would say: 'Ah well, what good does it do to step into a work of liberation? What good does it do to step into work of helping others? It doesn't pay off. It is just one drop in the ocean, isn't it?' That is what people say.

So, stick to your old lives. Stick to them, and try making your money, and try being happy in a very limited way, because you are not going to make a difference. That is what the mind is always whispering. And it is coming in through your parents. It is coming in through your loved ones, who are out to protect you, and believe me, in their best interest, they believe it is so. They believe, they are trying to protect you. What actually is happening, is the mind coming in through them telling you, that you can't make a difference. You must be crazy to think that you can.

Oh, others around me back then said the same thing. They told me, I wouldn't make it. They told me, I was crazy. They told me, that the lady I was going to follow, was a nutcase, and she was, but she was also a master. She still is. I hadn't met the biggest nutcase back then, which would be Da Ejakasan'da Kuthumi Valen San. But, but, I didn't listen. I did listen to my heart, however, and I followed it. So, in that one moment I created that change.

How are you going to do it? How are you going to value yourselves? By choosing it. You are now stepping away from the point of mastery as you will step into it, which is the way it always works. There is always a next step ahead. And you are getting closer to that which you call 'divinity'. You know divinity is all about choice. Da Solarys San has told you about this. So how do you value yourselves? By choosing it, by remembering who you truly are.

Why are You Going to Value Yourself?

Why then would you do it? This is also something that the mind says: 'Why must I be the one? Why must I be the one to let go of everything? Help! Why must I be the one? I, I have the most difficult choice to make in the entire universe!' That's what the mind says. 'Everybody else has it easy. All of those who are doing it too, are having an easier time. I am having the most hard time.' That is what the mind will tell you.

So why then should you value yourselves? Because you don't have the hardest time. Actually, you are having a ball! You are having a wonderful, wonderful time! And I know, that deep down you believe this, that deep down you know, that this is actually a wonderful thing to be involved in. Not just all of you sitting here, but all those millions around the world. And I keep referring back to this, because I want you to be very aware of the fact, that this isn't just happening in this room, and I am not even going to point you towards the evidence of that. You have already found the evidence of that as you go on to your internet, as you find the connections with all of those around the world. And those who would do a lot of traveling know, that wherever you go, even though you might not be aware of it, if you stay here in your own limited life, wherever you go there are those like you, doing the exact same thing. Not just on the continent of Europe but also on the continent of America, all the Americas, Australia, New Zealand, Asia, Africa; they are everywhere. Even those that I am forgetting right now. They are everywhere. So why? Because, again, you have the ability to choose it.

When are You Going to Value Yourself?

But now we come to the most important of these three questions: When should you start beginning to value your life? When? Oh, I have spoken with many in their dreams, and I am sure, that the fellowship sitting here, or Da Jeshua San, has spoken to many as well, and then we get to the most difficult of questions: The 'when.' Because everybody wants to do it, and they keep coming to seminars, because they want to do it, and they keep buying the books, because they are very interested in wanting to do it, and then somebody steps in front of them, and says: 'When? When are you going to do it?' Believe me, the answer is almost never 'now'. Now, I'm going to do it now. The answer is: 'Well, oh, let me look at my schedule here. Hmm, this linear thing.. Oh look, January 4th 2008, then I am going to do it. Or no, no, March! March is better. I have a hole in my schedule in March. I know, I have two weeks off. Then I am going to do it.' Hehe, no! There is only the now, and only in the now, you can do it.

When are you going to begin to value yourself again? Because that is stepping out of the mind, and that is stepping into mastery. If you value yourselves fully and completely, not because of the things you are owning, not because of the house, or the car, or the money, or the expensive jewelry, not because of what you accomplished in college, or in university, or not because of you are in one of these grand institutions such as the army, not because of all these things, but because who you are on the inside, who you are when you were born, who you are when you carried no name yet. Just that instant before the name was given to you by your parents, then you were the most pure. Then you were the most pure soul energy, weren't you? Remember that moment? Maybe not, but you can.

Da Jeshua San has told you about heart triggering and how it can take you back to any memory, how everybody can hold a key for you to do that. So, maybe after this ekaraia is over, you could heart trigger yourselves back into the moment you were born and find that pure soul. That was the moment when you and your higher selves were one, and then the name of humanity was given to you, and it comes with many names. It comes with a race, it comes with a gender, it comes with all of these things. That was given to you, and then all of a sudden you are human: Boom, there you go! And you have lost your touch with god, or at least you are beginning to.

There are a few very special children on this Earth, who have come to be the messengers, who only remain for a very short time. Sometimes even eight or nine years, and you know of them. You have seen them on your television sets. Young children, who write the most beautiful poetry, who make the most beautiful paintings, who don't believe in their name, who don't believe in their gender, who don't believe in their body, but who believe in their spirit, who believe in their divinity and who are the true messengers in their art. That is why Da Pah Ekara San was telling you about being the artist. That is being divine, being the artist.

That brings us back then to the question of 'when.' Well, especially for those who are sitting here, I am very sorry to report this, but the time is now! And you have even chosen it yourselves. Even if you weren't sure you were going to be here. Even if you weren't liking it at all. Here you sit, at the dawn of a new age. The beginning, or rather, the old.

You know, in your scripture - and I have studied it, I have studied everything, even the grocery list. I have studied the scripture - and in it says: As the new begins there will be several days - and some in of your bibles it even say 'three days' - of darkness before the new era begins. And you have chosen to interpret this in a very personal, or even a very literal way, thinking, that if that time would come, all of a sudden somebody would turn off the sun, it would be dark. It would be pretty chilly, I guess, and you would have all these souls hovering over the Earth.

That is not what is going to happen. This is, however, an ending, and the beginning is about to come in a couple of days. Da Jeshua San and others around the world are taking those people who are going to be part of that beginning to the heart energy spaces of the planet. In your case, Imzaia, you are going to go to the heart chakra of the Earth, which is Glastonbury. You are going to go to the Tor, aren't you? Which is the portal, even though it is not the biggest portal of the planet, that would be Shasta. You are going to go to that portal where the activation of the full reign of free energy is going to come in. So I have the lovely duty of signifying the end of all the bullshit, and I have been waiting for that all my life. Actually, you have all been waiting for it too, even though if you don't know it.

So here in Camelot, Tintagel, England, where once such a long time ago timelines merged, and Avalon, and Camelot, and Tintagel, would become one for just a brief moment in history, along with those who had the option of opening those spaces or keeping them closed, lifting the veils between the dimensions. Here it is, where once a very pure energy existed. We have the liberty of declaring human independence, human sovereignty, in such a way that it will flow through the human soul.

Three Days of Stillness

You have been taught how to work with your Akene, and you know, that the Akene is one, that there isn't one Akene in her, or in him, or whomever. There is but one, and you are all being projected by that Akene, which would be God, if you like to give it a name, which has nothing to do with religion. It is not the God of the bible. It is not the God of your religion. It is the universal energy. The beginning, which isn't the beginning, and the ending, which isn't the end.

The reason why you have been taught how to work again with that Akene is that you would have the power to singlehandedly change the universe. What you imprint on there, which is your Akenet, will end up in everybody's soul. It isn't just the Imzaia that have learned how to do it. The Lightworkers have also learned it in a different way. The Shaumbra have learned it in a different way, and now is the time to unite all of these groups, to bring all of them together and to stand as the one that you are.

So, as the ending of an old life, an old lifestyle, an old Earth, is indicated here and now, there will be indeed three days of darkness, but there the scripture - and this is what I have discovered, that actually, this is what has brought me onto the path with Da Pah Kwan Yin San - there the scripture was translated wrongly. It is not about darkness. It is about stillness, and if you go back into the Aramaic words you will see, that the sun in Aramaic is all about movement, and that the moon is all about stillness, non-movement. And throughout the years, as the Aramaic was lost, you ended up with a bible of fear, speaking about things such as apocalypse, destruction, Armageddon, what have you not, what you could and could not do. Ridiculous.

That darkness that was spoken about back then is all about stillness. So, get ready for three days of stillness, integration. It is happening to you, and to your neighbor, to your parents if they still are on the planet, to your children, to your family, your co-workers, everybody. Everybody will notice this stillness. Some will think it is very unpleasant, because those would be the ones creating from the mind, who are constantly looking for the next object, and all of a sudden the next situation, or object, or subject, will be nowhere to be found. And they will feel very miserable indeed, because the next thing to latch on to for safety isn't there.

Those of you, that have chosen for the energy of heart instead of the energy of mind, will know what to do in such a scenario. You want a guideline? It is very simple. What do you do in stillness? You are still. It is all you do. You are still. That is the easy part, being that stillness. Why? It is very simple. The stillness is there, so that you might find your I Am, so that you might be given a chance to reconnect fully with the higher self, and I know, we have spoken about this so many times, that you can connect to the higher self, and that now the connection has been made, yes? I am talking about the incension.

Do you think we were going to keep pushing this ahead, like religion would do so many times? 'Oh, the liberation is at hand! Just wait till next year!' No, the incension that we have spoken about is happening in the coming three days on this Earth. Again, it is happening to everyone. And some will immediately recognize it. For others it will take several years to fully recognize it, but the incension is now beginning. Actually, it will begin the moment I will shut my mouth. Stillness, right? But it is beginning, everywhere on the planet, and to each and everyone there will be that special moment.

You know, how you have always seen these numbers show up on your digital clocks? Back then for me it was 1701, although there were no digital clocks. I saw it in papers. I saw it in street numbers. I saw it in all those documents I had to sign. 1701, a nine. For me that amplified the ending I was actually stepping into. For others it will be other numbers like 11:11, 11:22, 11:44, 22:22, whatever. You all have these numbers, and it has always been said, that these are the actual attributes of activation, that those would be the numbers that would work with you on a vibrational level to activate all of it. It is activating all of it, and it is happening.

Oh, please human, don't go looking for the numbers now as I stop speaking! Don't go running into your rooms thinking: 'Oh, I have to see 11:11 or otherwise it won't start!' Sometimes it happens on a very subtle level. The eye picks up more than the brain registers. Remember that, or remember it at least for a couple of days, because that is also going to change. The way the eye and the brain are working together is going to change drastically. Because, as we have always said, the brain is going to connect to the Akene, and so all of it will, once again, be registered. All of it.

Get ready to start seeing again. How do you do that? By not desiring it. As long as you have the desire to do it, to see all of these energies it is not going to happen, because then you are going to keep pushing it into the past and into the future of you. In the past, where you could do it in one lifetime, and in the future, where you might do it in some lifetime, but not right now.

So, three days of stillness then. In those three days, as the incension will definitely, and most definitely, begin, we will bring in the other realms again. As Da Solarys San has told you about the prism of light, and how the light was shattered in all these different realities, one of which you are sitting in now. Another would be Lemuria. Another would be Avalon, etc, etc, etc. As we are going to be merging all of these realities once again, as the key that is this Earth, as the key that is this universe, will finally be turned, it will enable all of this other space that you have lived in, such as Avalon, such as Lemuria, to be reactivated once again, and to be blended, and that is the new Lemuria: The blending of all of it. Basically totality.

So, as this process will happen in the coming three days of stillness, we will speak. I won't, because I will be busy behind the scenes, so to speak. But others will. Da Lemuaya San will speak again. Da Arthur San, and others, will also speak again. Those who were there in Lemuria, such as Da Adama San, will speak again, and this will happen on your journey towards Glastonbury. And finally, in Glastonbury, at the moment which is now three days hence, Da Pah Ekara San and Da Solarys San will give the activation, the beginning of all of it.

Now why, Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San, you could ask, why is all of this structured? Why can't we just say: 'Let us whistle a song and let us get on with it? Why can't we just snap our fingers and make it so?' Well you could, you could, but back then at the party, the gathering, you have decided to do it in a way that wouldn't just be a moment, but would be stretched, so that enough energy could come into the planet, that everybody could feel it, you see?

I am going to ask you in those three days to focus not just on yourselves, but on your governments, on those who have been leading you for such a long time. Others have told you in the previous days about the president of the Americas, for instance, and his contact with a cat. Now, I was that cat. I like to be cat and dog. That to him will enable him to receive the power of forgiveness, to receive the power of true mastery, and to receive the new energy, the free energy.

So, if you are going to focus on your governments, do it in the coming days. Your effect will be vibrationally magnetized and exponentially energized. Fancy words, but you know what they mean. It will mean, that what you are doing in those three days will be stronger than ever before. You know, Imzaia, and others, as I am sitting here, I am thinking back - which is unusual for me - to other moments of the now where I was preparing this speech, if you could call it that, a preparation. It is not really a preparation, it is more energizing of it. And I visualized myself, as I create things through visualization so many times, I visualized myself standing up, taking that sword of Da Arthur San that is lying there and saying: 'There we go Imzaia! Get ready for change!' But now I find, that I want to close silently, that I want to close with the deepest of respect for what has been.

Interconnectiveness is Key

Tonight, those who are here, I am inviting you to celebrate, but in stillness. Yesterday, as we were trying to get away from this room - only Da Ejakasan'da Kuthumi Valen San stayed, and I was forced back into the room, because you were playing my music, ha, ha, Madonna, you know - yesterday, as I saw you celebrate, I saw you explode with energy, and it felt as though you were trying to have fun as best you could. It almost felt like New Year, where you were counting down from ten to zero and then all of a sudden it is 'Happy New Year' and you kiss everybody for the one time in a year. It felt like that yesterday.

Tonight I'm inviting all of you to celebrate the stillness. It doesn't mean, you can't play music. It doesn't mean, you can't dance. It doesn't mean, you can't have a drink or eat something. But it means, that this type of celebration is about connection. Interconnectiveness is the key to the incension process, and that is why Da Pah Ekara San has told you about the magnetics of your DNA, and how sending electricity through your DNA, which is what the body does, creates this magnetic field, and that this magnetic field will spiral onto all aspects of yourself, which are all things throughout time and space. That is interconnectiveness.

Interconnectiveness is the inspiration you are towards others, other aspects of you, inspiration of consciousness. We have said this to Shaumbra, and now we are telling it to you. You are the inspirers of consciousness. And as Imzaia who always likes to take an extra step: You are not just the inspirers, you are the activators.

So, if ever you are called to the job, it is in the coming three days, no matter if you are going with this group to Glastonbury or if you returning to your home lands or whatever you are going to be doing. Be on the job wherever you are! Be on the job! Be there now! And you will see how much effect you can have on this planet.

So I'm going to end in stillness. There is much more to be said, it will be said by Da Arthur San and Da Lemuaya San. I find, that my words are going. I find, that I am at a point where I too must let go of striving to do these things, because they are here. And I am dearly, dearly grateful and in love with all of you for doing it. I believe, that you have no idea the grandness and the scale of what you are doing. You will see that clearer when you go in to the stillness after this message is over and in the course of this night. It is something that has been built up since the dawn of time, actually, and now it is here. And I am in love with you, because I recognize myself in all of you.

And if I have three wishes that I could give you, it is that you might receive the full power of love, the full power of joy, and the full power of liberty, freedom, as you leave this room!

Imzaia, thank you! Shaumbra, thank you! Lightworkers, thank you for all those lives that you have been building towards this. Now is the time to fall in love again with Gaia, because it is in that love, that you will find the joy and the freedom that will create this new paradigm that is at hand. And the work isn't over yet. It is just beginning. And it won't be about work. It will be about passion. Passion with the underlying current of those three things that have been spoken about so many times in the last year: love, and joy and freedom. I keep coming back to them.

So now, how about you breathe.

Akeyasan: I am.

Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San: You are indeed. How about you breathe. And I'll ask Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San here to continue his music for a while after I am finished and to listen to the DNA of all of those sitting here right now, and if you would, kind soul, musician, artist, if you would translate the song of that DNA into your music. I would be very grateful.

So, Imzaia, three days are coming where I won't be able to speak to you and neither will Da Ejakasan'da Kuthumi Valen San, thank God. But the cosmic ones will. They will speak a great deal on your journey towards Glastonbury and they will give you tools for stillness. They will show you, what you can do to imprint what you find within that stillness onto the hologram. It will be quite different as the energy of the old, even though the celebration from old to new energy was done a while ago, as the energy of the old is now finally going away, as your incension process is starting.

After those three days I will return. I don't even know, what is going to happen after that. All I know is that it will be divine.

I love you. I respect you, and we are one. I have walked the path in front of you, the path towards source, so that you might walk it better, so that you might walk it in all clarity. So, before the glory of you go I. before the love of you I went, so that you might walk the same path now. For me it was an ascension. For you it will be an incension. Walk with your head held high and remember the power of Camelot and the power of Atlantis, where the head and the heart are one. That is forgiveness. See you on the flip side, and enjoy the stillness.

And so it ends.

Closing Words

Da Jeshua San: As Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San will continue the music, I am just going to say one more thing. And it is not just in my name. It is in the name of all the others I work with on an energy level, and it is in the name of all the others of the Fellowship here. Da Ojadasan'ka Adamus Valen San said thank you, I also want to thank you greatly for all that you have done, for the steps that you have taken, and for who you truly are in your heart. We are going to close the seminar right here. I am not going to use more words than these.

Thank you again. And for all of those who are not traveling with us to Glastonbury - although Da Ambika San would say: "there is still room!" - but for all of those who are not traveling with us to Glastonbury, I want you to know deep down, deep from within, that you are going to be there with us, in your heart, and that we will connect to you as this end that we have now known, will get a new beginning. We will connect to you and we will make sure that you are there, and that you will also get that information as soon as you can. So that is all I have to say.

Thank you, all of you, for who you are, and for your lifetimes on this planet, for everything you have been doing.

The last thing I am going to ask is that you may be healed, is that as you leave this room, your old aspects might be healed. All those lives, all those dramas, all the illness, all the fighting, all the death that you have known. That it may be healed.

And I can't ask this for you, so this is just a reminder to ask it for yourselves.

Thank you, all of you. We will see each other at the celebration tonight, and in the days to come, even if it is only in the heart, which is actually the most true place to see each other.

And so it is.

Da Ambika San: I too, want to thank you. I think we have had fabulous days here, on the grounds of Camelot, in this beautiful castle, and with the presence of all of you too. So thank you.

Audience: Thank you too.
